Explanatory notes

Account Holder

The term "Account Holder" means the person listed or identified as the holder of a Financial Account. A person, other than a Financial Institution, holding a Financial Account for the benefit of another person as an agent, a custodian, a nominee, a signatory, an investment advisor, an intermediary, or as a legal guardian, is not treated as the Account Holder. In these circumstances that other person is the Account Holder. For example in the case of a parent/child relationship where the parent is acting as a legal guardian, the child is regarded as the Account Holder. With respect to a jointly held account, each joint holder is treated as an Account Holder.

² Entity

The term "Entity" means a legal person or a legal arrangement, such as a corporation, organisation, partnership, trust or foundation.

3 FATCA and CRS

'FATCA' means sections 1471 to 1474 of the United States ('US') Internal Revenue Code and the US Treasury regulations and official guidance issued thereunder, as amended from time to time together with any intergovernmental agreement implementing the same.

'CRS' means the OECD Common Reporting Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information.

⁴ Tax Regulations

The term 'Tax Regulations' refers to laws, treaties and regulations created to enable automatic exchange of tax information and include FATCA, the CRS and any regulations, guidance or intergovernmental agreements implementing or similar to the same. In Australia this consists of subsection 396-A (FATCA) and subsection 396-C (CRS) of schedule 1 to the Tax Administration Act 1953 which is administered by the Australian Tax Office ('ATO').

⁵ Tax Residency

Each jurisdiction has its own rules for defining tax residence, and jurisdictions have provided information on how to determine whether an individual is tax resident in the jurisdiction on the OECD website http://www.oecd.org/tax/transparency/automatic-exchange-of-information/. Generally, an Individual will be resident for tax purposes in a jurisdiction if, under the laws of that jurisdiction (including tax conventions), it pays or should be paying tax therein by reason of its domicile, residence, or any other criterion of a similar nature, and not only from sources in that jurisdiction. Dual resident Individuals may rely on the tiebreaker rules contained in tax conventions (if applicable) to solve cases of double residence for determining their residence for tax purposes. For additional information on tax residence, please talk to your tax adviser or see the OECD automatic exchange of information portal.

⁶ TIN (including "functional equivalent")

The term "TIN" means Taxpayer Identification Number or a functional equivalent in the absence of a TIN. A TIN is a unique combination of letters or numbers assigned by a jurisdiction to an individual or an Entity and used to identify the individual or Entity for the purposes of administering the tax laws of such jurisdiction. Further details of acceptable TINs can be found at the OECD automatic exchange of information portal.

Some jurisdictions do not issue a TIN. However, these jurisdictions often utilise some other high integrity number with an equivalent level of identification (a "functional equivalent"). Examples of that type of number include, for individuals, a social security/insurance number, citizen/personal identification/service code/number, and resident registration number.

7 Reportable Account

The term "Reportable Account" means an account held by one or more Reportable Persons or by a Passive NFE with one or more Controlling Persons that is a Reportable Person.

⁸ Reportable Jurisdiction

A Reportable Jurisdiction is a jurisdiction with which an obligation to provide financial account information is in place and that is identified in a published list.

9 Reportable Person

A Reportable Person is defined as an individual who is tax resident in a Reportable Jurisdiction under the tax laws of that jurisdiction. Dual resident individuals may rely on the tiebreaker rules contained in tax conventions (if applicable) to solve cases of double residence for purposes of determining their residence for tax purposes.
