To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record certain information that identifies each registered owner of an account. BlackRock must also verify the identities of individuals with authority or control over the registered owner of an account, including person(s) able to effect securities transactions on behalf of the registered owner of an Account. Please complete the 'Beneficial Ownership & Controller Certification Form for Legal Entity Customers Investing in a U.S. BlackRock Mutual Fund. Also, please provide us with a copy of your most recent Corporate Resolution, Certified Articles of Incorporation, Partnership Agreement, or Trust Instrument, as applicable, preferably dated within the last 12 months of this account application, listing the names of those people authorized to act on this account.

Important notice: The U.S. Patriot Act

To help the U.S. Government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies persons opening accounts. For financial intermediaries where client information is not disclosed to BlackRock, BlackRock requires certification with respect to anti-money laundering policies, customer identification procedures and their evaluation of the underlying clients must be provided to BlackRock, upon request. For all other applicants, BlackRock requires the participant's name, address, date of birth and government-issued identification number (generally, a Social Security Number) and other information that may help identify the participant, which for individuals will include photo identification; BlackRock may ask for copies of related documentation. I have read and I understand the prospectus which explains the risks of opening this account if I do not provide all requested identification materials or if my identity cannot be adequately verified in accordance with U.S. Government requirements.

State unclaimed property law disclosure

The assets in your account are subject to state unclaimed property laws which provide that if no activity occurs in your account within the time period specified by the particular state law, your assets must be transferred to the appropriate state. We are required by law to advise you that your assets may be transferred to an appropriate state in compliance with these state laws.

Privacy principles of BlackRock funds

BlackRock is committed to maintaining the privacy of its current and former fund investors and individual clients (collectively, "Clients") and to safeguarding their nonpublic personal information. The following information is provided to help you understand what personal information BlackRock collects, how we protect that information and why in certain cases we share such information with select parties.

If you are located in a jurisdiction where specific laws, rules or regulations require BlackRock to provide you with additional or different privacy-related rights beyond what is set forth below, then BlackRock will comply with those specific laws, rules or regulations.

BlackRock obtains or verifies personal nonpublic information from and about you from different sources, including the following: (i) information we receive from you or, if applicable, your financial intermediary, on applications, forms or other documents; (ii) information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others; (iii) information we receive from a consumer reporting agency; and (iv) from visits to our website.

BlackRock does not sell or disclose to nonaffiliated third parties any nonpublic personal information about its Clients, except as permitted by law, or as is necessary to respond to regulatory requests or to service Client accounts. These nonaffiliated third parties are required to protect the confidentiality and security of this information and to use it only for its intended purpose.

We may share information with our affiliates to service your account or to provide you with information about other BlackRock products or services that may be of interest to you. In addition, BlackRock restricts access to nonpublic personal information about its Clients to those BlackRock employees with a legitimate business need for the information. BlackRock maintains physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that are designed to protect the nonpublic personal information of its Clients, including procedures relating to the proper storage and disposal of such information.

By the execution of this account application, the undersigned represents and warrants that it has the full right, power and authority to make the investment(s) applied for pursuant to this account application and is acting for itself or in some fiduciary capacity in making such investment, and that the individual(s) signing on behalf of the undersigned represent and warrant that they are fully authorized to sign the account application and to purchase and redeem Fund Shares on behalf of the undersigned. The undersigned affirms that it has received and reviewed a current Fund Prospectus, is exercising independent judgment and has evaluated the investment in Fund shares.

In connection with any transaction in Fund shares recommended by BlackRock, Inc. or any of its affiliates ("BlackRock"), the undersigned acknowledges that:

- 1. They are opening an institutional account as defined in FINRA Rule 4512(c);
- 2. They are capable of evaluating investment risks independently, with regard to all transactions involving Fund shares; and (b) will exercise independent judgment in evaluating any recommendation made by BlackRock or its associated persons with respect to such Fund shares, unless they have otherwise notified BlackRock in writing;
- 3. They will notify BlackRock if anything in this account application ceases to be true; and
- 4. The information contained herein may be shared by BlackRock with its affiliates and regulators.
