Connecting client capital to our social responsibility

We have received millions of savers’ money to work in companies, projects and governments, which help fuel growth, jobs and innovation. In Switzerland, we are focused on helping people build long-term savings for retirement, and have made sustainability our standard of investing in pursuit of this goal.

Engaging with local communities

Together with Pro Juventute we are working to support secondary school children in their application process for apprenticeships. We have also supported Transportation in a Forest project to improve cycling infrastructure through grants. For more than 10 years we have been making a difference to our local communities in Switzerland by applying our capital and skills to support a wide range of activities.
