Introduction

This report provides summary statistics of BlackRock Investment Stewardship's engagements with companies and voting at shareholder meetings. It distills statistics provided for each region in our quarterly engagement and voting reports.

The Investment Stewardship Annual Report, available on the BlackRock website, reviews BlackRock's approach to corporate governance and stewardship in support of long-term value creation for our clients. Our Annual Report reporting period is July 1, 2018 to June 30, 2019, representing the United States Securities and Exchange Commission's (SEC) 12-month reporting period for U.S. mutual funds, including iShares.

We file a record of our proxy votes with the SEC each year ended for BlackRock's funds. Our voting record for that period can also be found on the BlackRock website.

2019 Annual Engagement and Voting Statistics

BlackRock Investment Stewardship's 2019 Corporate Engagement and Voting Statistics

BlackRock, as a fiduciary investor, has a duty to act in our clients' best interests. This includes protecting and enhancing the value of the assets they have entrusted to us. The BlackRock Investment Stewardship team contributes to this through the engagements, including proxy voting, we do with the companies in which we invest on their behalf. We believe that good corporate governance—driven by strong board and executive leadership and by sound governance policies—delivers long-term shareholder value and the returns our clients depend on and expect.

The key to effective engagement is constructive and private communication. Engagement allows us to share our philosophy on and approach to investment and corporate governance with companies. Through dialogue, we make clear our expectations of companies in relation to their governance and business practices, including their management of relevant environmental and social factors. Equally, it gives us the opportunity to improve our understanding of investee companies and how their governance and management structures support operational excellence and thus sustainable financial performance.

Annual Engagement Statistics

We engage with companies for five main reasons:

- We are preparing to vote at the company's shareholder meeting and need to clarify the information in company disclosures
- There has been an event at the company that has impacted its performance or may impact long-term company value
- The company is in a sector or market where there is a thematic governance issue material to shareholder value
- Our corporate governance risk analysis has identified the company as lagging its peers on environmental, social or governance matters that may impact long-term value
- A company requests a meeting to discuss substantive governance matters

Annual Voting Statistics

Voting at shareholder meetings is the most broad-based form of engagement we have with companies. It enables investors to provide feedback to the company and, where relevant, encourage the board and management team to consider and address investor concerns. We make our voting decisions on a case-by-case basis in the context of our published voting guidelines for each region. Our starting position is generally to support management, engaging where we have concerns that the board or management might not be acting in the best long-term economic interests of shareholders such as our clients. We aim to give companies time to respond, recognizing that sometimes governance changes can take many months. We will vote against a company's proposals if we believe that the issue under consideration is clearly not in our clients' economic interests, the company does not wish to engage with us or engagement fails to resolve our concerns.

Proposals by Type

We collate the proposals on which shareholders are asked to vote into ten categories. The vast majority of proposals are routine and relate to the election of directors and board governance matters. This is not surprising given the important role played by directors in representing and protecting shareholder interests. The proposals on which BlackRock votes against management vary from market-to-market but tend to be related to executive pay, director elections, takeover protections and capitalization. We may also support certain shareholder proposals seeking improvements in corporate governance and business practices.
