Form 5500 Compensation Type - Eligible Indirect Compensation

Investment management fees are charged to the Fund or the Master Fund in which the Fund invests and the underlying funds (the "Underlying Funds") in which the Fund or Master Fund invests (if applicable) and are reflected in the value of, or return on, your Plan's investment in the Fund or Master Fund. Investment management fees paid by the Fund, Master Fund or Underlying Fund (if applicable) have been calculated by applying the fee rates reflected in the "Fees and Expenses of the Fund" and "Management of the Funds – BlackRock" sections of the Fund's or Underlying Fund's (if applicable) Prospectus and "Part 1 – Management and Advisory Arrangements" of the Fund's or Underlying Fund's (if applicable) Statement of Additional Information, or similarly named section. The services provided by the investment adviser are described in "Part 2 – Management and Other Service Arrangements – Management Services" of the Statement of Additional Information, or similarly named sections.

In certain cases, the Investment Management Fee includes Administrative Expenses. Administrative services are described in "Part 2 – Management and other Service Arrangements – Other Service Arrangements" of the Statement of Additional Information, or similarly named sections.

Brokerage Commissions and Sales Loads

Investors may pay intermediaries brokerage commissions when purchasing or selling fund shares in a brokerage account. In addition, with respect to Investor A Shares, intermediaries may be compensated for distribution and sales support activities provided in connection with your Plan's investment in the class. If applicable, please contact your intermediary for details regarding any compensation received by your intermediary in connection with your Plan's investment in the Fund or class, and the nature of the services provided for such compensation for the applicable period.
