3. Signatures

Each registered shareholder must sign this form to authorize the above changes. If a responsible individual, such as a Power of Attorney, executor, guardian, custodian, etc., is signing on behalf of an account owner, please include their capacity below the signature. If not already on file, we may request documentation of such capacity.

NOTE: If mail has been returned from the address already on file and a postal stop has been placed on your account, all signatures on this form must be verified by notary seal, a Medallion Signature Guarantee stamp or a Signature Verification Stamp. If the account value is greater than $100,000, a notary stamp may not be accepted.

You should also be aware that with any change of address, for the security of your account we will place a 30-day hold on any redemption by check to the new address (unless a Medallion Signature Guarantee is used on this form). A confirmation of the address change will be sent to both your old and new address.

Upon receipt of this form, BlackRock will update your address for each of the requested accounts.
