Each Fund reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to suspend the offering of shares of such fund or to reject a purchase order when, in the judgment of management, such suspension or rejection is in the best interest of the Fund; to modify or waive the minimum initial or subsequent investment for certain investors; and to redeem shares if information provided in this application should prove to be incorrect in any material manner (e.g., in a manner such as to render the shareholder ineligible to purchase shares of the Fund). To help the U.S. Government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies persons opening accounts. To comply, BlackRock requires the investor's name, address, date of birth and government-issued identification number (generally, a Social Security Number) and other information that may help identify the investor; and may ask for copies of related documentation and may consult third-party databases to help verify the investor's identity. I have read and I understand the prospectus which explains the risks of opening this account if I do not provide all requested identification materials or if my identity cannot be adequately verified in accordance with U.S. Government requirements.

To the extent permissible by law, the Fund reserves the right to (i) place limits on transaction in any account until the identity of the investor is verified; (ii) to refuse any investment, or (iii) to involuntarily redeem an Investor's shares and close an account in the event that the Fund is unable to verify an Investor's identity.
